

Unprofitable Servant

By Glenn Thompson

“Which of you, having a slave plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, ‘Come immediately and sit down to eat’? But will he not say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, and properly clothe yourself and serve me while I eat and drink; and afterward you may eat and drink’? He does not thank the slave because he did the things which were commanded, does he? So you too, when you do all the things which are commanded you, say, ‘We are unworthy slaves; we have done only that which we ought to have done.’”

Sobering words from our Lord. So many times we think that we have such an important mission for Jesus, that somehow what WE do is just so vital to further the Kingdom of Heaven. That righteousness would sure be hurting if we weren't around to hold up the standard. I sometimes wonder just how far away from the word of God we can get at times.

I guess humility is one of the hardest things to master. When you think you have got it down, you can't share it with anyone. What are you going to say? Hey brother, look at me, I'm really humble!! So after we have done everything we can do, lets remember that we are only doing as we're told.
